Our mother,

Wanda Hoffman West Secrest

returned home to our Heavenly Father on November 11, 2026.

She had just celebrated her 90th birthday with her family on October 4, 2026. Even though she was 90, she didn't look her age. She was graced with a beautiful youthful semblance.

Wanda was born October 4, 1936, to James Henry Hoffman and Dorothy Ellen Lance Hoffman in Moab, Utah. Her mother always said that she was born on October 3, and so we celebrated her birthday on the 3rd. When her parents passed, she found her birth certificate stating she was born on October 4th. She was the third of four children. Lily Ann Balsley and Corine Carter were her older sisters; James Harold her younger brother.

Wanda spent her early years helping at the dairy farm her family operated. She often talked of milking cows, churning the butter, and going with her father to deliver the milk before school. It was arduous work and she learned the value of hard work from that experience. As a young child she contracted rheumatic fever and it caused damage to her heart. Nevertheless, she persisted and led a busy, active life.

On July 6, 1953, she married Jerry Leonard West. They had 4 children together. Jerry and Wanda later divorced. She married Arthur Omer Secrest on February 28, 1969, and they had 3 children together. Art and Wanda remained married until Art's death in 2012. They spent 43 happy years together. She valued her family and worked hard to blend two families together.

Wanda had many talents. She loved to sew, crochet, garden, hunt, fish, and collect antiques. While raising her family, she was often found sewing their clothes, baking bread, canning fruits and vegetables, serving others, and supporting her children in their activities.

Wanda also helped to bring extra income into the home. She worked for Maverick, made bow strings for Carroll's Bows, was a cashier at Walker Drug and later as technician in the pharmacy. She was a clerk at the Sears catalog store and finally as a paraeducator at Grand County High School. She had an entrepreneurial spirit. She fixed up old campers and trailers to resell. She and Art had an ostrich and emu farm. They always had chickens, turkeys, ducks, sheep and a donkey named Eeyore. All the grandchildren loved Eeyore. She thought of having a trailer park or RV park on their property but ended up developing a small neighborhood instead. She loved to come up with business ideas while Art would just shake his head at her.

A member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she loved Jesus Christ and served Him faithfully. Wanda served in many callings including Relief Society President, Stake Camp Director, Primary Secretary, Young Women's President and was an ordinance worker in the Monticello Utah Temple, something she cherished.

Mom loved playing cards with her family and her friends. We remember dad and her playing late into the night with "Sarge" and Reba Day. And most recently with her cherished friend Nola Walker. She was highly creative and loved coming up with new activities for her family and those she served. One of her happiest activities was Santa Claus coming every Christmas Eve after a family dinner and games. She enjoyed sitting on Santa's lap (Ron Pierce) as much as we did.

After Art's passing, she created a monthly "Merry Widow's" group to support other widows in the community. She loved meeting with those women and sharing a meal. She also supported the DUP (Daughters of Utah's Pioneer's) meetings. She was proud of her heritage.

Wanda wasn't perfect and she made mistakes; just like all of us. But she had a good heart and tried her best.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her siblings, her husband Art, her son-in-law (Gary) and her son (Buddy). She is survived by her children Jim West (Kristy), Sherri Joiner (and the late Gary Joiner), Jay West (Annie Carter), Joe West (Maria West), Wynette Hawks (Jimmy) and Katrina Shewell (Brian). She is also survived by too many grandkids and great grandkids to count. She will be greatly missed by us all.

The family wishes to express their appreciation to the caregivers at Canyonlands Care Center for their many kindnesses to her. And to Dr. Ken Williams for his tender care of her for over 25 years.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, November 21st at the LDS stake center on Locust Lane at 1:00 PM. Interment will take place at Grand Valley Cemetery.

Family and friends are invited to share tributes online at www.SpanishValleyMortuary.com.
