On Patriot Day, during wildfire season, and year-round, FireBREAK commemorates the first responders who protect our communities during disaster.

FireBREAK is a local wildfire preparedness partnership that includes Rim to Rim Restoration, Moab Valley Fire Department, Grand County Weed Department, Grand County Sheriff's Office of Emergency Management, the City of Moab, and more. Our fire fuels mitigation work aims to protect first responders and the community during a future wildfire.

See our work & request a site assessment at firebreakmoab.org

The funding for this project is derived in full or in part from a federal award of the U.S. Forest Service, Department of Agriculture, sub-awarded by the Utah Division of Forestry, Fire and State Lands.

We have a major American thinker in our midst. Jay Ogilvy lives in Castle Valley.

Choosing Our Futures:

The Collected Essays of James Ogilvy,
ed. David Dennen, Daniel Tarpy, and Tyler Piteo-Tarpy;
Amazon: Five Volumes

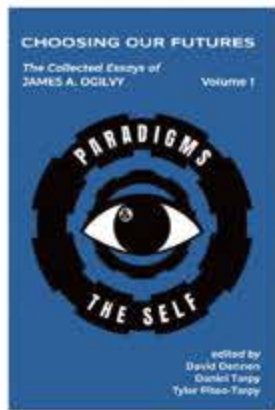

Stewart Brand says, “If you want to be rich and famous, have one good idea and never have another.” Ogilvy’s problem is he’s had too many.

Volume 1: Paradigms and the Self

Jay, whenever anyone asks me about the future, I think, What would Jay say? . . . I find your originality to be inspiring.

—Kevin Kelly, author of Out of Control, What Technology Wants, and The Inevitable

Volume Two: It’s All Coming Together: Essays on Emergence containing the recently completed, full-length book

Coming Together: How the Emergence of Life, Evolution, and Language shed light on the Emergence of Consciousness, Love, Money, and Artistic Creativity

Jay Ogilvy’s reflections on the notoriously counter-intuitive concept of emergence is a fresh out-of-the-box exploration that takes the reader on an Alice and Wonderland tour of its relevance to science, society, and everyday life. Highly recommended.

—Terrence Deacon, author of The Symbolic Species and Incomplete Nature: The Emergence of Mind from Matter

Emergence, the scientific idea, is here applied to practical philosophy, and a warm philosophy at that. This is an urgent project, since science has increasingly felt cold when practical philosophy is called for, resulting in a dangerous schism in the heart of modernity. This book opens a path forward.

—Jaron Lanier, inventor of virtual reality, author of Who Owns the Future, and musician

This is a dazzling, learned and ingenious book meant to lead us out of the cul-de-sac of material “explanation” and, at the same time avoid the smothering of our perplexities with the comforts of religious defiance... It is an epic tour-de-force that will provoke, inspire and reassure every thoughtful reader.

—Philip Bobbitt, author of Shield of Achilles, and advisor to presidents

Volume 3: Scenario Planning

The world is a mysterious place for most of us where understanding is overwhelmed by complexity. Almost every intellectual effort to gain insight into that complexity relies on simplifying the irreducibly complex and so fails to gain a proper insight. Jay Ogilvy brings a remarkable breadth and depth of ideas and a very different strategy that takes that complexity as fundamental.

—Peter Schwartz, author of Art of the Long View and The Long Boom, and co-author of The Emergent Paradigm

Volume 4: Philosophy & Society

I’ve long thought that Jay’s brilliant, ground-breaking first book, Many Dimensional Man, published in 1977, mirrored the complex person he was and the adventurous life he would live.

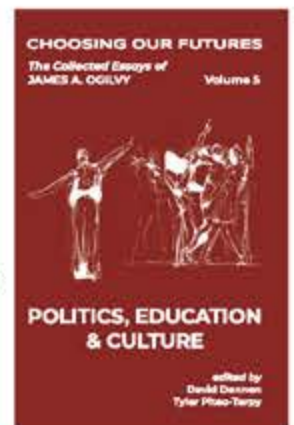

—Michael Murphy, cofounder of Esalen Institute; Author, Golf in the Kingdom

Volume 5: Politics, Education & Culture

I’ve been blessed, in my wanderings, to know and to have the chance to work with, some pretty remarkable folks [like Bob Iger, Chairman of Disney]. Jay is at the top of that list. The power of his intellect, his polymathic knowledge, his almost-frightening analytic capacity, his ruthless curiosity, his ability to re-frame questions/problems/opportunities in ways that open them to effective address (ways that almost inevitably seem obvious in retrospect :)—these gifts and others make Jay a glorious partner.

—Laurence Wilkinson, cofounder of GBN, advisor to the founders of WIRED magazine

CITY OF MOAB PLANNING COMMISSION PUBLIC HEARING

The City of Moab Planning Commission will hold a Public Hearing on Thursday, September 17th, 2026, at approximately 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Moab City Offices at 217 East Center Street, Moab, Utah. The purpose of this hearing is to solicit public input on the Proposed City Resolution 07-2026, A Resolution to adopt the City of Moab Annexation Policy Plan And Updated Annexation Policy Area Maps as Appendix C of the City of Moab General Plan.

The public is invited to review and inspect all information available concerning such proposal(s) at the Moab City Offices during regular office hours, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Friday up until September 17th, 2026. The public or any interested parties may present written or oral testimony to the Moab City Planning Department concerning the proposed action at the aforementioned time and place.

PUBLIC HEARING
GRAND COUNTY PLANNING COMMISSION
Monday, September 14th, 2026

The Grand County Planning Commission will hold a Public Hearing on Monday, September 14th, 2026, at 6:00 p.m. or later. The hearing will be held in person at the Grand County Commission Chambers, 125 E. Center St., Moab, UT 84532, and virtually via Zoom.

All interested parties are encouraged to attend in person or electronically. Instructions for participating via Zoom will be included in the meeting agenda, which will be posted on the County's website at least 24 hours prior to the meeting.

The purpose of this hearing is to solicit public input on a proposed ordinance amending Article 8, Article 9, and Article 10 of the Grand County Land Use Code ("LUC"). The proposed ordinance would designate the Planning Commission as the administrative land use authority for a preliminary subdivision application proposing more than five (5) lots, conform LUC § 8.1 to Utah Code Title 17, Chapter 79, repeal Ordinance No. 711 (2024) as a duplicate of Ordinance No. 708 (2024), and make related conforming amendments elsewhere in the LUC.

Following the public hearing, the Planning Commission will consider forwarding a recommendation on the proposed ordinance to the Grand County Commission.

APPLICABILITY—This is an amendment to the text of the Grand County Land Use Code. It is not a rezone and does not amend the zoning map. No parcel is rezoned, no boundary is changed, and no legal description applies. The amendments apply throughout the unincorporated area of Grand County to the procedures identified below.

SUMMARY OF THE ORDINANCE--- This ordinance changes who reviews a preliminary subdivision plat when the subdivision is large. Today the Land Use Code assigns preliminary and final subdivision review to the Planning Director. Under the ordinance, a preliminary plat proposing more than five lots would go to the Planning Commission, which would act on it in a public meeting where the public may comment. A preliminary plat proposing five lots or fewer would stay with the Planning Director, who would continue to handle every final plat. A decision on a preliminary plat may be appealed to the Hearing Officer within thirty days.

The ordinance also updates the section of the Code that governs the Planning Commission itself. State law changed twice: the county land use act was renumbered from Title 17, Chapter 27a to Title 17, Chapter 79 in November 2025, and a 2026 amendment now requires the County's ordinance to state the causes for removing a Planning Commission member, to say that deliberating on an application in a meeting is not cause for removal, and to say when a member must step aside. The ordinance makes those changes, corrects the citations, and fixes the quorum and voting rule so a Planning Commission with unfilled seats can still act. It also states that two overlay districts have expired on their own terms. The text of both is kept in the Code because projects were permitted under them and the rules that applied to those projects still govern them. Finally, it repeals Ordinance 711, which was adopted the same day as Ordinance 708 in 2024 and says exactly the same thing, so that a single ordinance number carries the duplicate changes, no rule and removes nothing from the Code.

Development standards do not change. No property is rezoned, no use is added or removed, and no fee is changed. What changes is who decides a preliminary plat, when the public gets to be heard on one, and whether the Code matches state law.

A complete copy of the proposed ordinance is available for public review during regular business hours at the Grand County Planning Department, 59 North 200 East, Moab, Utah, at the Grand County Commission Chambers, 125 East Center Street, Moab, Utah, and, because this item is set for public hearing, at the Grand County Library, and will be available at least 24 hours prior to the public hearing.

MUFFIN MAN

Hi folks, my name is Muffin Man and I am an adult tabby. My dad had to surrender me to the shelter because he needs to be traveling to the far reaches of the world. He taught me a lot about being a good companion and made life good for me. The shelter has cool, high places for me to hang out. I really like watching the other cats' activities. There are kittens, teenagers, and various other ages of kitties moving around. I don't know how the shelter staff keeps this place so clean after a day of this crazy cat action. ❤️

BLUE

Blue here, keeping an eye on the animal shelter. I was brought here not long ago and realized there was work to be done. You see, there are some young pups running around and playing all day and I must keep an eye on them. I am a good-looking, two-year-old brindle bully mix. People often comment on my striking blue eyes. I know basic commands and stay quiet once I get used to a place. I am gentle when taking a treat and love wet food. I am ready for my next big assignment: a family of my own. I am told I will be ready after getting a neuter, whatever that is. You can meet me at the Moab Animal Shelter. ❤️

CLOVER

Clover, is a female young adult Torti/tabby mix. She came to the shelter with her three orange tabby kittens. They are adventuring on their own at this point and Clover is ready for her forever home. Clover is very loving toward humans but would do best in a home where she is the only fur baby. She is very curious about her surroundings and loves wet food. She doesn't get under foot but is always close by and ready for some love. ❤️

BITTLE

Bittle is a young female tortoiseshell cat that came to the shelter with a small kitten. She is very friendly with both visitors and the young cats that are running about the shelter. She loves following the shelter staff during the day and dances for wet food. Bittle has been a great mom but is ready for her forever home to receive some much needed TLC and maybe a spot to look outside during the warm summer days. Stop by the Moab Animal Shelter to meet your new best friend, Bittle. ❤️

BISQUE

Hi Moab and Green River community, my name is Bisque and I am a small adult, male mix breed. I am looking for a forever home. I was found in the desert near a farm. Thankfully the farmer that found me abandoned did his best to care for me until the shelter could take me in. I have a front paw deformity that causes me to favor it slightly. It kinda looks like a lobster claw, weird huh. I do well with other dogs my size and don't mind cats. I am hesitant to go greet new people but will relax soon after. Folks, I have been through some stuff but I am a good boy. If you would like to meet me please call 435-259-4862. ❤️

BOOP

Boop is an eleven-month-old male Border Collie mix. He is extremely intelligent and picks up verbal cues quickly. Boop has unlimited energy and would thrive with an active individual. He loves water and learned to swim during a recent outing with one of our volunteers. Boop likes to play with toys and will play fetch until your arm falls off, then will look at your other arm to continue. He is very loving and does well with his shelter buddy Chaco. ❤️

WAFFLE

Okay, the shelter lady told me to introduce myself. My name is Waffle and I am a female Terrier mix puppy. I stayed with a nice foster family while my hurt leg healed, but I can use it pretty good now. I loved playing with their big boxer even though he is so much bigger than me. I am smart enough to already know some tricks and love going on walks every day. I heard that folks like getting younger dogs to bond with. I sure hope that's true. I have been through a lot and really just want to just have my own person. ❤️

INDIE

Folks, my name is Indie and I am ready to find my forever home. I am an adult female Black Mouth Cur mix. I found my way to the shelter after being found along a busy highway. I get along with all dogs. I have made friends with puppies, teenagers, and lots of other dogs with different energy levels here at the shelter. I miss having a human and would love a person who works from home or is retired to share their time with me. I love to go on walks, play in the water, and do little jumps when I get excited. I will impress you with my excellent sit, lay down and roll over skills. I have been here for a while and just know that my person will come pick me as their best friend soon. ❤️
